Met in Commissioner's Chambers

Meeting Called to Order:

Chair Rod Brewer called the meeting to order at 8:30 a.m.

Commissioners Present:

Chair Rod Brewer, Vice-Chairman Ben Hurwitz, and Commissioner Errol Galt were present for the meeting.

Claims Review / Minutes Review:

ACTION #1

Chair Hurwitz moved to approve the Minutes from September 12th, 2023. Commissioner Galt seconded the motion. A vote was taken and minutes were approved.

Library Report – Rachel Wahlstrom

Rachel Wahlstrom entered the chamber at 9:00 a.m.

Wahlstrom started by explaining the miscommunication in the increase of hours budgeted for FY 23.24. Wahlstrom explained the Saturday hours were in addition to the increase in regular hours. The libraries publications, subscriptions and dues, also increased due to the State of Montana increasing all their programs by 10% across the board. Wahlstrom also stated she has increased the number of times Courier Crates stops to exchange books with other libraries from only Tuesday to Tuesday and Thursday.

Story time has started again on Wednesdays at 11 a.m. and Preschoolers come once a week either Thursday or Friday.

Commissioner Hurwitz moved to approve the library budget increase without increasing the cash reserves. Commissioner Galt seconded the motion. A vote was taken and passed. A Public Hearing for Library Budget will be held on Tuesday October 3, 2023 at 1:00 p.m.

Extension Report – Makayla Paul

Extension Agent, Makayla Paul entered the chambers at 9:30 a.m.

Paul started by updating the Commissioners on the visit from Governor Gianforte on August 10, 2023. The Governor inquired about how 4-H impacts the community. Paul stated several 4-H members were able to attend and visit with the Governor and his staff.

MQS has completed the inside of the 4-H barn. The Barn is now waiting on Master Electric to finish the electrical. Once the barn was built there were some changes in the way the electrical needed to be wired.

Paul confirmed the new 4-H year begins October 1st and National 4-H week is Oct. 1st-8th. The 4-H members will be putting up posters at the school and will be putting I love 4-H stickers on coffee cups at Wild Oats Bakery. Paul stated that she will also be more active in getting the Home School families involved in 4-H

Thrivent Financial held a golf tournament fundraiser at Arrowhead Meadows over Labor Day. The tournament raised $5000 that 4-H members can use to attend 4-H events outside of Meagher County.

Paul stated that she continues to see an increase in office consultations. Soil testing, disease identification in gardens and trees along with Nitrate testing are the most common visits. Paul stated that she is also receiving calls with questions regarding hay prices and custom haying rates.

Paul updated the Commission on the conferences, workshops and Retreats that she has been attending. Those include The National Association of County Agricultural Agents Conference, Level 2 Noxious Weed Management Workshop and a Leadership Retreat being the most recent.

Meagher County Housing – DA Davidson – Greg Brunner

In Chambers were: Cal Moore, Makayla Paul, Cassie Coburn (Meagher County Stewardship Council), Rob Brandt (CEO Mountainview Medical Center), Melissa Mikesell (Tintina), Terry Taylor (City County Consolidated Planning Board), Rick Nelson (Mayor), Burt Hurwitz (County Attorney), Greg Brunner (DA Davidson), Bridget Ekstrom (DA Davidson), Crystal Vogel (DA Davidson)

Moore started by introducing the representatives from DA. Davidson and gave an overview of the housing situation in Meagher County.

D.A. Davidson has substantial experience providing financing for municipalities in Montana and across the Country. They offer a variety of financing options to assist in the development of affordable housing. Representatives from DA Davidson presented the commission with information regarding the different funding options available to Meagher County for affordable housing projects. It was discussed that Meagher County cannot be a landlord and they cannot be a lender. However, the county can be an investor.

Commissioners will continue the Meagher County Housing discussion on October 17th at 1:00 p.m. the Department of Commerce will be invited to attend the meeting.
